The following award given by the Industrial Tribunal Goa, Daman and Diu in an Industrial Dispute between M/s. Security Organisation and Methods Consultant and their worker Shri P. K. C/o. Zuari Agro Chemicals Ltd.,
Zuarinagar, Sancoale, Goa

... 2nd Party

The Government of Goa, Daman and Diu referred the dispute between the workman Shri P. K. Rajan and his employer M/s. Security Organisation and Methods Consultants for adjudication to this Tribunal setting out the following schedule:

SCHEDULE

"Whether the action of the Management of M/s. Security Organisation and Methods Consultants, Zuarinagar, Sancoale (Goa) in terminating the services of Shri P. K. Rajan, Security Guard with effect from 25th October, 1977 is legal and justified?

If the answer be in the negative, to what relief if any, is the aforementioned workman entitled to?"

The first party workman by a statement of claim stated that he was appointed as Security Guard from 2-2-1976 and continued to work as such till 19-10-1977 on which day his services were discontinued without any notice. He therefore, prayed for an award of reinstatement with back wages and other entitlements.

The 2nd party contended that the first party was employed from 1-6-1976 and not from 2-2-1976 as claimed by him and that on 18-10-1977 he was rude and disobedient to one of the officials of the Zuari Agrochemicals, principal employer of the second party, and hence was asked to work at a different point and that the workman did not go to the said different point of work and did not report for duty subsequently. It was also contended that subsequently the first party workman tendered his resignation.

Subsequently the parties settled their dispute and have filed a joint memo requesting that a consent award be passed in terms of the settlement. In the settlement, the 2nd party has reinstated the first party workman with continuity of service, but without back wages. The management agreed to pay Rs. 250/- towards the actual cost and expenses incurred by the first party workman. A fitment of the workman on reinstatement was also agreed on, and the first party was to join duty on 5th March, 1979.

From what has been stated above, it is clear that the workman gets the principal claim for reinstatement with continuity of service and other benefits though he has lost back wages. Both the parties have found the settlement satisfactory and accepted the same. Therefore the settlement is accepted and this award is being passed in terms of it.

AWARD

Award is made in terms of the settlement dated 3-3-1979. A copy of the settlement shall be annexed to and be read as part of this award.

SHORT RECITAL OF THE CASE

Shri P. K. Rajan vide his representation dated 2-3-78 raised a dispute before the Conciliation Officer-cum-Assistant Labour Commissioner, Panaji regarding the termination of his services by the management of M/s. Security Organisation and Methods Consultants (Hereinafter referred to as the management) alleging that his services were illegally terminated with effect from 19-10-77 by the management without any cause and without paying him his legal dues. The management contended that on 18-10-77 Shri Rajan refused to carry out the duties as directed and insulted the officers and when the management transferred Shri Rajan to another unit, Shri Rajan refused to report for duty there and absconded from services from that day. Having ended the conciliation in failure the Conciliation Officer submitted failure report to the Secretary, Industries and Labour on 22-8-78. The Under Secretary, Industries and Labour vide his letter dated 29-8-78 informed the parties about the receipt of failure report and vide Order dated 20-10-78 referred the dispute for adjudication to the Industrial Tribunal cum-Labour Court, Panjim. After the dispute was referred for adjudication, the parties met on several occasions and due to prolonged discussions, the following settlement is arrived at.
